Student Course Syllabus and Expectations

Course Description:

¡Bienvenidos a nuestra clase de Español!
 Welcome to our Spanish Class! Students, this year will be challenging and will require a lot of effort from both of us, but together we can be successful. You will feel confident in your ability to communicate in the Spanish language but it will be your choice how much you learn. I will teach you all that I can but I cannot learn FOR you, this you must do on your own. Remember you are responsible for your learning. Share what we learn with your families and become their Spanish teacher! I look forward to having fun, learning, and teaching with you this year.

My course policies and expectations

Classwork/Homework

There is daily classwork/homework that is due. This work needs to be out and completed at the begining of class I DO NOT accept late work, except if you are absent.

Attendance

👉 If you are absent, you have as many days as you were absent to turn in your work. (I don't want you to get behind)

👉 I update Student Connect daily. So, if you are absent, you will receive a zero until you show me your work. (don't freak out, it's OK)

👉 If you are absent a day of a quiz/test, please see me to make arrangements.

Communication

You are nearly adults, and it is my expectation that YOU THE STUDENT communicate with me yourself regarding your classwork, grades, or any other matter. It is primarily your responsibility now, and your parents really should not be the ones contacting me with issues that you are fully capable of handling yourself. That is not to say I do not want to/will not talk to your parents, but that should be reserved for situations where you are literally unable to do it yourself (you're very ill or injured for example).

How you are graded

Grading:

You will be assessed and evaluated on meeting course standards in speaking, listening, reading and writing. Research has shown that success is based on daily practice and memorization. If there is no specific homework assignment on a given day, students should be reviewing notes and vocabulary for the current unit for a minimum of 10 – 15 minutes per day. Final grades are based on points. Extra credit cannot exceed more than five percent of your grade. Student Connect is updated DAILY. Final grades are determined as follows:

Interpersonal/Presentational/Communication

10 points/daily

Points may/will be deducted if you:

- ✓ are not actively participating in class
- ✓ misuse of electronics (phone/computer)
- ✓ talk at inappropriate times
- ✓ not using the target language
- ✓ tardy to class
- ✓ abuse of bathroom privilege
- ✓ listening to music during instruction

Classwork/Homework

10-20 points

- ✓ Classwork/Homework daily assignments
- ✓ Careful! These add up to LOTS of points!!!
- ✓ NO LATE WORK IS ACCEPTED
- ✓ If it is obvious a translating tool was used, YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO
- ✓ Every assignment will be checked at the beginning of class

Notebook

checks:

50 points per check

- ✓ I reserve that right to conduct random notebook checks.
- ✓ There are 3 subjects in your notebook:
- ✓ Apuntes
- ✓ Vocabulario
- ✓ Trabajo de clase

Quizzes/Tests/Projects

20-100 points

- ✓ Quizzes will be taken on every Friday at the end of each "Paso" in the textbook.
- ✓ Chapter tests are approximately once a month.
- ✓ If it is obvious a translating tool was used, NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN
